My next task then.... As someone who grew up in church and has been involved in ministry my entire adult life, I would argue that there first needs to be a solid foundation of knowledge within the body of believers for a church to be stable at any number. I doubt if I will read more Gardner, but I do understand the reviews and readership.

The string parts do not appear to be difficult. Under similar circumstances, both Felix and Festus protected Paul but feared to release him because of Jewish political pressures. The Prologos of the Middle Platonist philosopher Albinus ft. It would make for a great group read, discussing our obsession with privatizing and monetizing everything of value. However, it ought to be mentioned that there may have been Jewish involvement.
