Bloch, Devorah Kennedy, Theodora Lightfoot, Kimbler, W. Senator Diane Savino closes the collection of essays reminding Italian Americans that the Guido culture has been an outlet for young people who needed an identity that they could embrace, and that the real enemies are not the youngsters who created the subculture but rather those who distort it and exploit it in order to make a profit.

The Marshal Who Fell Through Time

It was the clammy, sickly-sweet smell of Marseilles soap, wood-smoke, cold sweat, eau de Cologne and wearied flesh that even daily showers and the attrition of the massage glove could no longer alleviate and that had so long permeated the whole house-the stench of old age and death, and all that is done and dusted. They also provided relative weightings to their criteria, generating overall rankings of the policy options in relation to each .
