Prisoners in War

Yet even these were so vague and unreal that they might have been the mere phantoms of some dream of the half-sleeping passengers; for the thickly-strewn needles of the pine, that choked the way and deadened all sound, yielded under the silently-crushing wheels a faint soporific odor that seemed to benumb their senses, already slipping back into unconsciousness during the long ascent. Explores the history of the Baltimore Colts the team's controversial move to Indianapolis and the NFL's return to Baltimore through the common thread of the Colts marching band.
