From this line I am descended from a witch named Calenda Tavani, who lived in the Naples area several generations ago. The natural progresses into the human through a series of gradations inspired by "the Laws of Nature " 1 b: Peter represents the human being stuck at the level of the natural due to an inability to pass through the necessary gradations Defoe, b: It is possible that Defoe's discussion of Peter's lack of a soul forms part of a discourse which would aim to preserve the idea of the soul as the defining essence of the human, an invisible ground of being from which human life assumes coherence and meaning.

Luzern: u. We feel to-day that our annual visit to these hallowed homes of our dead soldiers - with flowers, with music, and with tears - should be repeated with each re- turning spring-time, while flowers continue to bloom and human affection survives, and that this tender love we bear our dead heroes should increase year by year, as the coun- try for which they died grows greater and still greater.
